

PRESS RELEASE

Sept 7 2007

Let not this be what happens to our border. There is an alternative to fencing the border. New website wants to bring this alternative up for discussion. Released today is a draft of the introduction. See the website.

bordercommerce.com

Unzipping the border. No fences where commerce can better address local security issues. Let commerce solve security issues along the border.